+Call to Confession

Luke 24:46-48

You have heard what was written about Jesus in Scripture: how he would suffer and die and then rise from the dead on the third day; how, through his death and resurrection, the forgiveness of sin is now possible for all who repent. So let us boldly approach the throne of God, where we will find grace and mercy.

+Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave, you shattered the power of sin and death. You broke into our dying, decaying world and have begun to work healing. You have begun a marvelous and miraculous work of redemption right before our very eyes. Yet we resist and confess that we remain captivated by the gods of this world that promise much and deliver little. We do not believe that you could be calling us to something more noble and so we settle for lives of comfort and mediocrity. We confess that we remain captive to our own failures and judgmental of the failures of others. We quickly forget that your grace is sufficient, that Jesus came, not to call the righteous, but the unrighteous. Forgive us, God of mercy. Invade our lives by your Spirit and make us new. Grant that we may know the joy of abundant life given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord in whose name we pray. Amen.

+Assurance of Pardon

from 2 Corinthians 12:9

My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness. So go forth in the power of the almighty, who forgives you and loves you. Thanks be to God!

+Please Stand

This Is the Gospel In Which We Confess

We believe the good news that we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved: Christ died for our sins, was buried, was raised on the third day, He appeared first to the women, then to Peter and the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses.

We believe Jesus is the Christ, the Anointed One of God, the firstborn of all creation and the firstborn from the dead. In Him all things hold together, in whom the fullness of God was pleased to dwell by the power of the Spirit.

We believe Christ is the head of the body, the church, and by the blood of the cross reconciles all things to God, whether in earth or in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Amen

Responsive Resurrection Reading

Leader: On the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared.

All: And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

Leader: When they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

All: While they were in wonder about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel.

Leader: And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them,

All: “Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.

Leader: Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.”

All: Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

Message: “Resurrection Faith” John 20:11-18
